Ulan-Ude

Ulan-Ude, the capital of the Republic of Buryatia was aim collecting taxes from native peoples. At first it was a small settlement 1666 by Russian Cossacks with the named Verkhneudinsk. Thanks to its favourable geographical situation on the junction of trade roads to the Far East, Mongolia and China Verkhneudinsk began developing rapidly and in 1775 it was given the status of city. Since 1934 our city is called Ulan-Ude.

Ulan-Ude is situated on the banks of the large Selenga and Uda rivers. Nearly 400 thousand people live here. It is the largest industrial and cultural centre of Buryatia and one of the largest in Eastern Siberia.

Ulan-Ude is divided into three main parts: Sovetsky, Oktyabrsky and Zheleznodorozhny.

In Ulan-Ude there are many educational institutions: schools, technical schools, colleges, universities and academies. The Buryat Branch of the Siberian Department of the Russian Academy of Sciences contributes significantly to the national economy of our Republic. The Branch includes the special section, the only one in Russia - the Tibetan medicine section. It studies the fundamentals of the oldest medical system of the East.

Ulan-Ude is the cultural center of the Republic. There are many theatres and museums.

The most famous theatre is the Academic Opera and Ballet House, the only one in Eastern Siberia. We are proud of our singers and ballet-dancers who are renowned not only in Buryatia and Russia but also abroad. They are Shoidagbayeva, Balzhinimayev, Dashiev, Sachyanova and many others.

The historical museum exhibits photographs, documents and other materials connected with the history of our Republic. The museum of Nature acquaints us with the flora and fauna of Buryatia. The Ethnographic museum is famous for its collection of yurtas and wooden houses.

2. Answer the following comprehension questions:

1. Do you know the history of Ulan-Ude?
2. Do you know famous people of our republic?
3. What parts does Ulan-Ude consist of?
4. What can you tell about the Buryat Opera and Ballet House?
5. When were the Merchants' Rows built?
6. What educational institutions are there in Ulan-Ude?
7. What places of interest would you like to tell us about?

SAGAALGAN

The main holiday of the year is Sagaalган or the holiday of the White Moon, It is celebrated on the first days of February on the eve of the lunar New Year. It is truly a people's holiday. Not only the Buryats but also all the citizens of the republic celebrate this holiday. It is a national holiday.

Sagaalган is above all a family holiday. It is customary to wish a Happy New Year to close and distant relatives first, so the holiday is spent visiting neighbors, receiving guests, giving presents and feasting.

The white colour symbolizes happiness and richness. During this month all the people visit each other and make presents. The value of the present is of no importance. People wish each other the white thoughts of wealth and success.

The Buryats have a good tradition by congratulating the old people during Sagaalган. The ceremony begins with presenting Khadak (a blue scarf made of soft silk), white milk products, headscarves, pieces of fabric, and a pack of cigarettes or a piece of soap. The white milk products may be milk, dried scum, curds and butter. They are the signs of respect and friendship.

At the Datsans Lamas dressed in colourful, traditional coats pray together for well-being and happiness for every person all over the world. All the citizens of the republic try to visit the datsans during the month to receive prosperity, good health and longevity for children from the lamas. In the ancient time Sagaalga was celebrated in autumn. After the advent of Lamaism, Sagaalga was celebrated from autumn until the end of winter or the first month of winter, which is February in the Mongolian calendar.

1. What does Sagaalga mean?
2. What does the white colour symbolize?
3. What Sagaalga's traditions do you know?

Тема 1.6 Государственное и политическое устройство России

Variant 1

1. Прочитайте текст и письменно ответьте на вопросы по тексту:

Political System of Russia

Russia is a democratic federative state based on rule of law and a republican form of government. State power in Russia is exercised by the President, the Federal Assembly, the Government and the courts.

One of the basic principles of constitutional government is the division of powers. In accordance with this principle, power must not be concentrated in the hands of one person or one institution, but must be divided among the legislative, executive and judicial branches of power. The division of powers requires that there be a clear delineation of responsibilities and a system of checks and balances so that each branch of power can offset the others.

1. What is the form of government in Russia?
2. Is the state power in Russia exercised by the President, the Federal Assembly, the Government and the courts?

Variant 2

1. Прочитайте текст и ответьте на вопросы по тексту:

Political System of Russia

The President is at the summit of the system of state power. He ensures that all the state institutions are able to carry out their responsibilities and keeps watching over them to ensure that no institution can encroach on another's prerogatives, attempt to usurp power in the country or take over another's powers.

The president of Russia is the government's chief executive, head of state, and most powerful official. The president is elected by the people to serve a four-year term. The president, with the approval of the lower house of parliament, appoints a prime minister to serve as head of government. The prime minister is the top-ranking official of a Council of Ministers (cabinet). The council carries out the operations of the government.

1. Who is at the summit of the system of state power?
2. Who elects the president of Russia?

1. Translate the text in written form.

Sport is probably as old as the humanity itself. It has been developing with the growth of the mankind. All over the world people of different ages are very fond of sports and games. We all need to exercise. Even if you don't plan to make a career in sport you still have to practice. Regular exercises give you more energy. Besides, sport makes you better disciplined and more organized.

The original Olympic Games began in ancient Greece in 776. Since that time they have become very popular. First winners were awarded olive wreaths and cups of olive oil. This tradition has survived. In our time sportsmen get cups and wreaths for winning the first place in sport competitions. Modern Olympic Games are held every two year.

2. Answer the questions to the text.

Why do people do sports?

When did the first Olympic Games start?

1. Read and translate the text.

People in our planet can't live without travelling now. Our ancestors liked to travel as well, but tourism has become a highly developed business not long ago. There are a lot of companies that provide you with comfort and security. What choice to make? There is a great variety of choice available for you. Those who live in the country like going to a big city, visiting museums and art galleries, looking at the shop windows and dining at exotic restaurants. City-dwellers prefer holidays at the sea or in the mountains with camera.

Nowadays people travel not only for pleasure but also on business. You have to go to other countries to participate in different negotiations, to sign contracts and push the goods produced by your firm or company.

2. Answer the questions to the text.

What are the reasons people travel around the world?

What do people do if they travel on business?

3. Finish up the sentences using the text.

Travel companies help you to be ...

Tourism needs a lot of money because it is a ...

4. Find in the text and write down the sentences in:

Present Simple b) Present Perfect c) Past Simple, (подчеркните глагол-сказуемое)

5. Make a sentence using the following words:

And, people, galleries, a city, big, museums, visit, in, restaurants.
